SouthWare, Inc. (collectively "us", "our" or "we") collects the domain name and e-mail address (where possible) of visitors to our Web page, the e-mail addresses of those who communicate with us via e-mail, aggregate information on what pages visitors access or visit, user-specific information on what pages visitors access or visit, and information volunteered by the visitor, such as information requests, survey information and/or site registrations. The information we collect is used to improve the content of our Web page, to customize the content and/or layout of our page for each individual visitor, and to provide the visitor with more information on our capabilities and products. A visitor's information is not shared with other organizations or third parties except when permission from the visitor has been granted, or under special circumstances, such as when we believe in good faith that it is required by law. If you supply us with your postal address, telephone number or e-mail address online, you may receive periodic mailings, telephone calls or e-mails from us with information on new products and services or upcoming events. If you do not wish to receive such mailings, please let us know by e-mail at info@southware.com or by writing to us at SouthWare, Inc. 1922 Professional Circle, PO Box 3040, Auburn, AL 36831. From time to time, we may use visitor information for new, unanticipated uses not previously disclosed in our privacy notice. If our information practices change at some time in the future we will post the policy changes to our Web site to notify you of these changes and provide you with the ability to opt out of these new uses. If you are concerned about how your information is used, you should check back at our Web site periodically. Visitors may prevent their information from being used for purposes other than those for which it was originally collected by writing us at the above address.
